Your Vocation as a Priest in God's Kingdom

"You also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ...you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light"

1st Peter 2:5,9. (NKJV)

Dear friends, did you know that as a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ you are a priest! Wait a minute Pastor, I thought that only Roman Catholics have priests - and all of them are men! True, but the New Testament scriptures are very clear that the Old Testament office of "priest" has been abolished and fulfilled in the person of our savior, Jesus Christ. As the book of Hebrews teaches us, Jesus is our great High Priest who offered himself as the highest, greatest and final mediator of the New Testament in his blood by His sacrifice for all sin on the altar of the cross. Therefore we are no longer in need of the human mediators of the Old Testament covenant or the priestly office. Remember what St. Paul said: "For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man - Christ Jesus". This means that Jesus is our one and only High Priest and Good Shepherd for the entire flock of all believers in Christ.

As Lutherans, we have always said that the one, great Shepherd of the sheep, Jesus, has appointed and divinely called His under-Shepherds (pastors) through the call of the individual congregation to serve His flock. Nevertheless, we are ALL PRIESTS in God's Kingdom, the Church, through faith in Christ!

So, if I am a "priest" in God's Kingdom, what am I supposed to do? According to St. Peter, in the passage above, you are called to "offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ". What that means is that as a "priest" and part of what Luther called: "the priesthood of all believers", you are called to make spiritual sacrifices before God on behalf of your fellow saints. "What kind of sacrifices?," you might ask. Well first of all, as a priest you are to offer up your personal prayers to God on behalf of your fellow believers. Every time you pray, in church or at home, for fellow believers who are sick, hurting or suffering, you are fulfilling your vocation as a "priest" in God's Kingdom. Every time you put your offerings in the collection plate, you are sacrificially serving your fellow saints (and even unbelievers) by ensuring that the life-saving Gospel of Jesus Christ can continue to be preached in your church. You give that spiritual sacrifice to Christ for the good of others, out of love for your Savior, because that is what a "priest" is called to do! Every time that you sacrificially take the time to serve on a church board, or teach the children, or do any act of mercy or kindness that helps and benefits others, you are fulfilling your vocation as a priest. When you come to worship and sing God's praises you strengthen the faith of others and act as a priest. And, what makes your "spiritual sacrifices" acceptable to God, is that they are offered up to God by faith in Jesus Christ and by your love for Him as your Lord and Savior from sin.

Your vocation as a priest in God's Kingdom is also connected to your vocation in life. Are you a husband or wife, mother or father, employee or employer? When you faithfully, gladly and willingly serve others, out of love for Christ, and put their needs above your own, you are fulfilling your calling - your vocation as a priest in God's kingdom.

Now, none of us are perfect "priests". The only perfect priest is Jesus, God's perfect Son, the great High Priest who gave his life for the salvation of the world. As "priests" we are still sinners, but we are FORGIVEN sinners through the blood of Christ. By faith in Jesus, every spiritual sacrifice you offer up to God is now viewed as sacred, good, holy and acceptable by God your heavenly Father. In heaven, God will never forget the "spiritual sacrifices" that you made on earth out of love for Jesus.

So my dear fellow "priests" - serve the Lord with gladness! Pastor John Flaunne

Director Christian Education

Concordians,

Confirmation is the first Sunday in May at Concordia. It is an important milestone in someone's life when they are able to confirm their faith. That means they have reviewed the doctrines of the church, studied the Bible, have found them to be in concordance (or agreement) with one another, and have decided to reaffirm their faith.

Sadly, confirmation and graduation seem to be used interchangeably. It's ironic that the moment of reaffirming the faith tends to be the declining of faith. That's not what it's supposed to be at all. Part of being a caring congregation is continuing to care for those youth and their families. If they haven't been in church awhile, the whole family of Christ should remind them how much we love them and ask if there are ways we can help or pray for them.

Yes, we do trust in the Holy Spirit who everyone receives in their Baptism to sustain the faith and eventually bring the work of God to completion. However, God allows and encourages us to care for others and share each other's burdens. The fruits of the Spirit are love, patience, and faithfulness. Love others, care about them, be patient with them as we all continue to grow, and always be faithful to the one who renews you every day.

Christ's great love inspires us to respond to others with great love as well. Continue to seek the lost and those sheep you haven't seen in awhile. Also, remember to always draw near to Christ's Word and Sacraments so He can renew and refresh your faith every day.

*In Christ, Sarah Shadday, DCE

Deaconess update

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!!

I want all of you to know that I am so honored and appreciative to be called to your church as your part time Deaconess. I am sure that most of you also know that I am still serving in the military. I was ordered to active duty at Rock Island Arsenal in Rock Island, IL. I had to report there on 15 March 2016. The orders go through 30 September 2016 with a possibility that they could be extended for a year. I have prayed about this and discussed it with my family and several board directors. I will be put on an extended leave of absence.

I will be receiving the announcements each week so I can stay up to date on our church happenings and pray for all of our members while I am on my leave of absence. Please keep me in your prayers as well. The possibility of me being deployed is extremely low.

Sue Ranbarger will lead our Women's Bible study. Currently the ladies meet in the fellowship hall on the first, third, (and fifth – if there is one) Monday of the month at 7pm. Please see the bulletin and calendar for upcoming dates.

I want to extend my deepest gratitude for these last 3 years of service to you. I hope to be able to serve for many years to come. Thank you for your prayers and support. I truly appreciate you! May Jesus bless you and keep you in this Easter Season.

In His Service

The LWML Indianapolis West Zone will have its spring rally on April 16 at Living Christ Lutheran Church in Plainfield. Registration and breakfast begins at 8:30 a.m. Karin Price from Bethesda Lutheran Communities will speak to us about the programs and services they now offer. A free will offering will be taken for Bethesda. Following this, we will worship our Lord using the LWML Prayer Service. All women are invited to attend. ## LWML Indiana District Convention

The LWML Indiana District Convention will be held June 24-26. The theme is "Who's your Lord?" reminding us that we should be ready at all times to tell others who our Lord and Savior is. Business to be conducted includes election of officers, selection of mission projects we will support with our mites and accepting changes in the bylaws. Most of the convention is spent listening to interesting and inspiring speakers who will strengthen our faith and inspire us to serve our Lord and by missionaries who have spent time working in the mission field. We also enjoy singing and worshipping on Friday evening and again on Sunday morning. On Saturday evening we will be entertained by Weaver Believer Survival Revival. This family will be singing Blue Grass music. No one is a stranger and we experience a wonderful fellowship with our sisters in Christ.

If there is a woman in the congregation who would like to learn more about the LWML this is a good way to do so. If she would like to attend, but cannot afford the cost the district has a scholarship available to pay all expenses. If you are interested contact Miriam Neumann. Applications for the scholarship must be in by May 1.

Mites Provides Outreach In Refugee Camps—Lebanon

The Word of God is brought to Lebanon through Lutheran Hour Ministries—Lebanon, known locally as Middle East Lutheran Ministry (MELM). The ministry began in Beirut in 1950, and their offices are used to spread the message of salvation in Jesus Christ throughout the region.

LHM—Lebanon’s radio broadcasts reach at least ten Arabic-speaking countries with the Gospel. The center receives responses from all over the Middle East and offers opportunities to learn more about Jesus through its Arabic-language Bible Correspondence Courses (BCC) and other print media. The center also attracts people through television programming, film shows and other events, a website, and text messages that are available by subscription.

MELM also reaches out to struggling communities through vacation Bible schools and through holistic programs that provide clothing and school supplies for children. The center also provides holistic emergency care for people such as the Syrian families and individuals who have sought refuge in Lebanon from the civil war in their homeland.

The Lutheran Women’s Missionary League (LWML) grant will support MELM in providing relief to the women and children in the refugee camps with basic humanitarian supplies, including food staples and hygiene kits so that they can live with dignity, bringing a long-term growth and expansion of the Gospel to destitute woman and children living in those refugee camps, now and after they return to their homeland.

We have a great opportunity in the LWML to help and support this organization, which everyday gives new testimonies of Christian vocation, professionalism, and love.

The $72,000 grant will reach 15,000 women and children with humanitarian supplies, provide trucking, storage, and distribution for those items, along with printed materials, and for support staff.

A special note to all Thrivent members

Thrivent Financial proudly presents the Thrivent Member Network.

As a fraternal benefit society, Thrivent has had local member groups all over the country and as a member, you've been part of one. The familiar chapter system closed on March 31, 2016. Beginning April 1, members are now part of the Thrivent Member Network where a regional board of three to ten members provide governance, accountability, strategic insight, and monitoring of operations and initiatives to help Thrivent achieve its mission in the region. We've transitioned other regions from the chapter system to the Thrivent Member Network and the response from members has been overwhelmingly positive.

The Thrivent Member Network was created based on member input, in order to appeal to and engage more people in a way that is meaningful to them, and to support the mission of Thrivent to help more people be wise with money and live generously so that more families and communities thrive.

We've also made it easier for you to make a difference in your community through the Thrivent Action Team program. All members can volunteer to
