Charles & Jeanette Groth
serving in Cambodia

Rev. Charles and Jeanette Groth are called to serve God in Southeast Asia, being based in Cambodia where LCMS World Mission works to support established churches there. Chuck serves as a pastor/mentor for leadership training and Jeanette is the education, volunteer, and mission responder coordinator. Together they are working to put together curriculum and teaching for the training of Lutheran leaders in Southeast Asia. Previously, the Groths served in Ghana, West Africa, from 2000 to 2005.

Charles was born and raised in Chicago suburbs. He has served parishes in Richton Park, Ill., Crown Point, Ind., and Lexington, Ky. He and Jeanette met at Concordia College, Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1968. They were married on Dec. 19, 1970, and now have three grown children: Kristyn, Jason, and Kara, and four grandchildren. Charles enjoys woodworking, amateur radio (KC4JOX), and electronic communications.

Jeanette is finishing work on her doctorate in curriculum and instruction. She taught in Lutheran schools in Bloomington, Homewood, and Springfield, Ill., and taught social studies in the Fayette County, Ky., school system. She likes to travel and has led school groups to Japan and the British Isles. Jeanette has enjoyed writing books and educational materials for Concordia Publishing House for 25 years. She loves to play the piano.

Charles and Jeanette would like prayers for their family while they are separated from them. Pray that God will continue to keep them focused on sharing Jesus as they work in training pastors and leaders. May the Spirit open hearts as they share the love of Christ Jesus with many in Southeast Asia.
